CAUGHNAWAGA WINS CUP

STAKE FOR BURGOMASTER

Whitney Pair Finish First and Second in $10,000 U. S. Hotel.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 19.—In the geographies of the future Caughnawaga, once noted as the spot where some Indians and Frenchmen fought and died, will be famed as the home of the horse that put Amsterdam, N. Y., on easy street. Grandfathers will tell the future crop of Amsterdam bables how in the long ago they left the looms and the ploughs one August morning, and, taking the bank roll from the sugar bowl, journeyed to the Springs of Saratoga and bet every cent of it on Caughnawaga to win the Saratoga Cup, way back in 1905.

The sluggish pulse will thrill again and the shrivelled hands will tighten as the aged sports recall the ecstatic moment when that old "runnin' hoss" suddenly came to life-just as the sugar bowls seemed in imminent danger of being permanently empty-and frustrated the designs of the wicked men who sat on high stools and bet that Caughnawaga would not

The story tellers may have forgotten that it was the famous mare Beldame and the honest colt Cairngorm that Caughnawaga caught in the last quarter of a mile of that long journey of · mile and three-quarters, but they will never forget how they twisted themselves into spiral corkscrews riding the old chestnut home from the head of the stretch.

It was a great day for the Sanford stable and for old Caughnawaga, but it was a greater one for Amsterdam, N. Y. The town came apparent-By in a body; it swarmed over the lawns and through the grandstands, and, when Caughnawaga-ridden with superb skill by Arthur Reddern-reached the judges a length and a half in front of Beldame the Amsterdamites went into jubilant hysterics. Straightaway they burst through the gates into the exclusive clubhouse inclosure, and, surrounding the elder Mr. Sanford in a mass, tried to tell him in one voice how they knew Caughnawaga would win all

From the point of view of the regulars the day was not so satisfactory, in spite of the fact that the programme, with the renewals of the Beverwyck, the United States Hotel and the Saratoga Cup, fairly bristled with stakes.

The withdrawal of the fast filly Artful from the Saratoga Cup was a keen disappointment, and, if reports are true, was one for which either the management or the Whitney Stable was hargely responsible. Last Monday it was anmounced positively that Artful would not be a starter, and this impression prevailed throughout the week. If the assertion, therefore, that Artial was named in the overnight list merely for attractiveness to the programme is true, the responsible for it would seem to be guilty of rather cheap and shabby trick.

The Whitney Stable, with its two Hamburg colts, Burgomaster and Pegasus, monopolized the United States Hotel Stakes of $10,000, as thoroughly as two youngsters could.

the United States Hotel Stakes of $10,000, as thoroughly as two youngsters could. Burgo-master, with which Mr. Rogers declared to win, master, with which Mr. Rogers declared to win, not only made a show of the six youngsters that chased him over the six furlongs, but with 127 pounds gave them all fifteen pounds apiece. The field was made up of such two-year-olds as Oyama, Bellsnicker, Samson, McKittridge and Ormondale—the latter two added starters—so the victory cannot be attributed to lack of class.

Redfern rode Burgomaster, and, beating the barrier by a length, made the pace to the finish. None of the others—except Pegasus—could get to him, and the result was never in any doubt. Lyne had the leg up on the bay colt, and it was apparent that he could have made Burgomaster hustle had he any fears that the pair was in danger. was in danger.

Ormondale showed much the same sluggish-first start, but when he once found his feet he first start, but when he once found his feet he came with a great turn of speed and beat Bell-smicker for third place. The Whitney pair always ruled favorite in the betting, and 5 to 4 on was considered a liberal price.

The scarcity of steeplechase material of stake class was apparent again when of the twenty-odd "leppers" eligible only three accepted the weights for the renewal of the Beverwyck Handicap, over the full course. These three were Mr. Hitchcock's Jim Newman, Mr. Colt's Malden and Mr. Cotton's Jimmie Lane.

The first named attempted, with 162 pounds, to make small concessions to the other two, but after making the pace for a part of the journey he gave up to Jimmie Lane, the favorite, and was also passed by Malden. Jimmie Lane, with his pull in the weights, had no difficulty in beating the Ceit gelding, and won as he pleased.

It was found when Jim Newman returned to the stand that he had bled in the course of the race and was badly choked up. Ray pulled him to a hand gallop when he found he had no chance of winning. Jimmie Lane gave an exhibition of fast, clean fencing, and was the only one of the three that did not blunder at some one of the obstacles.

FINE GOLF BY ANDERSON.

Open Champion Beats Alex Smith on Lake Mahopac Links.

Wille Anderson, the open champion of the United States, gave a grand exhibition of his skill yesterday at Lake Mahopac, when he smashed all previous records of the course in a thirty-six hole match with Alex Smith, the Nassau County Club professional, for a purse of $100, offered by the Mahopac Golf Club.

Smith, who has been suffering from malaria for some weeks, deserves great credit for the plucky manner in which he played, doing his rounds in bogie figures, but he made a poor showing against Anderson's record breaking golf, which was even better than the par for the course.

His golf was absolutely perfect and he beat Smith by 7 up and 6 to play, and by 7 up in the full thirty-six holes, as the bye holes were played out for the benefit of the large gallery who so faithfully fellowed the match over the links.

The club has a picturesque and sporty ninehole course, which is in the pink of condition. It is 3,005 yards in length and laid out on rolling land, sloping from the hills to the lake. It was the finest golf the members of the club had ever witnessed, and they rather enjoyed the long journey over the course.

Anderson cut the nine-hole record of the course down from 39 to 36, the eighteen-hole record from 79 to 73 and the thirty-six-hole record from 160 to 147.

In the morning Anderson went out in 37 to Smith's 38, and led by 1 up at the turn. He then did a 36 to Smith's 41, finishing the morning play of eighteen holes in 73 to 79, and led by 5 up.

In the afternoon Smith played the first nine holes in the par golf of 37, but Anderson went out in 36, one stroke better than par, and increased his lead to 6 up.

The match virtually ended at the thirtieth hole, with Anderson the winner by 7 up and 6 to play, but the six bye holes were played out, each winning two and two being balled. The Calcago runs were scored in the third, sixth, eighth and ninth innings. A good Saturday crowd turned out to see the game. The out, each winning two and two being halve Anderson did the last nine holes in 38 a

Errors and stupid base running caused the Giants to lese to the Chicago Colts at the Polo The Grounds yesterday by a score of 8 to 2. fielding of the home team was ragged, and Reulbach, who pitched for the visitors, held the locals

Wiltse, who twirled for the Giants, pitched excellent ball with the exception of the sixth inning, when he was hit for three hits, scoring four runs. Wiltse was given poor support.

The Giants scored in the sixth and eighth innings. In the sixth, Wiltse, first up, sent a liner to Chance. Strang was safe on Hoffman's bad throw. Donlin doubled along the base line in left field. Heffman took care of McGann, Strang romping across the plate, and Mertes died, Kling to Chase.

The other run was made in the eighth inning, when Clarke singled and Tinker dropped Hoffman's throw of Wiltse's hit, both runners being safe. Strang walked, filling the bases. Donlin went out to Chance, unassisted, and Wiltse was run down between second and third. Clarke scored. McGain walked. Strang was caught off second, Reulbach to Tinker.

The Calcago runs were second in the third.

and Former Loses Mast.

The eleventh annual regatta of the Huguenot Yacht Club was sailed yesterday. The wind was northeast and strong. Twenty-eight yachts started, but only twenty-five finished.

The raceabout Mystral, owned by Commodore A. C. Bostwick, of the Larchmont Yacht Club. and the 33-foot sloop Nike, owned by Victor L Cumnock, of the Seawanhaka Corinthian Yacht Club, came together, with the result that the Mystral's mast was broken in two places and the rigging completely wrecked. The Nike was uninjured.

The start was at 12:10. The course was triangular, the largest boats going twice around a seven and a half mile triangle, the intermediate three times around a three and three-quarters mile triangle and the smallest twice around a three and three-quarters mile triangle. The first leg was a hard thrash to windward, the second an easy reach, with booms on the star-board, and the third leg a broad reach, with booms to port.
